

SDSU's TWELFTH ANNUAL LAVENDER GRADUATION

Tuesday, May 4, 2021
2pm-4pm as a virtual event

Lavender Graduation 2021 celebrates graduating students who openly identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, asexual or allies.

Students will receive a certificate and rainbow cord to wear with their academic regalia during commencement when the campus re-opens .

To participate, please email the following information to Esther Rothblum at erothblu@sdsu.edu:

- ⇒ Your name as you would like it to appear on a certificate
- ⇒ Undergraduate or graduate degree you are receiving
- ⇒ Your major & minor
- ⇒ 3 digital photos of you (alone or with others)

Attire is open to graduates' discretion. Lavender Graduation does not replace the official SDSU commencement ceremony. You will not receive your diploma until commencement.

COME & CELEBRATE SDSU's LGBTQIA+ 2021 GRADUATES!

This event is sponsored by Robert DeKoven, JD, California Western School of Law; Ben Cartwright; Rick Cervantes; SafeZones@SDSU; Student Affairs and Campus Diversity; LGBTQ+ Studies; the Pride Center; Counseling and Psychological Services; Delta Lambda Phi; The SDSU LGBT Alumni Chapter; School of Journalism and Media Studies; and the Department of Women's Studies.