

LGBTQ+ STUDIES

GENERAL EDUCATION COURSES – FALL 2023

Foundations – Lifelong Learning and Self Development

LGBT 101 Introduction to LGBTQ+ Studies

Diversity of LGBTQ+ communities, identities, politics, sexual, and gender bodies. Intersectionality of age, class, color, embodiment, ethnicity, gender, personhood, religion, and sexuality. 3.00 units.

TTH 8-9:15am Slaska

LGBT 101 Introduction to LGBTQ+ Studies (Pride House Section)

Diversity of LGBTQ+ communities, identities, politics, sexual, and gender bodies. Intersectionality of age, class, color, embodiment, ethnicity, gender, personhood, religion, and sexuality. 3.00 units.

MW (F Online) 2-2:50pm Draz

Explorations - Social and Behavioral Science

LGBT 321 LGBTQ+ Identities in the Modern World

Interdisciplinary field of lesbian and gay studies with attention to social and political institutions and development of personal identity. Topics include discrimination, internalized homophobia, political activism, and diversity within lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender community. 3.00 units.

W 4-6:40pm Marchan

Explorations - Humanities

LGBT 322 / HUM 322 LGBTQ+ History and Culture

Interdisciplinary field of lesbian and gay studies with attention to history and artistic expression. Topics include varying attitudes toward homosexuality in history, as well as literary, artistic, theatrical, and musical contributions of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender community. 3.00 units.

M4-6:40pm Marchan

LGBT 333 Trans/Gender Studies

Diversity of queer/trans identities in history and now. Trans lives and cultures to include oppression and resistance. Cis privilege and alliances. Intersections of ability, age, class, color, and sexuality with trans identities. 3.00 units

MW (F Online) 9-9:50am Pacyniak

ECL 450 LGBT Literature and Culture

LGBT knowledge and identities as expressed in literature and culture; changing nature of same-sex desire, sexual behavior, and same-sex relationships from antiquity to present. Formerly numbered ENGL 450. 3.00 units.

MW 2-3:15pm Howard

OTHER LGBTQ+ STUDIES COURSES – ALL COUNT FOR THE LGBTQ+ STUDIES MAJOR AND MINOR

LGBT 550 Queering Comics

Exploration of LGBTQ+ culture, ideas, aesthetics, identity, and politics through sequential art. The politics of LGBTQ+ representation in culture. Queer methods of reading comic strips, comic books, and graphic narratives. Introduces LGBTQ+ comic creators. 3.00 units.

TH 4-6:40pm Whatcott

LGBT 598 LGBT Studies Internship

Application of LGBTQ+ Studies theories and scholarship to community service and activism. Internship includes 120 hours of work in local public and private agencies serving the LGBT community and working toward LGBT equality. 3.00 units. For more information, contact mdraz@sdsu.edu

Arranged Draz

View the full list of elective courses for the LGBTQ+ Studies major on <http://lgbt.sdsu.edu/courses>

Interested in learning more about the LGBTQ+ Studies major or minor?

Contact Marie Draz, mdraz@sdsu.edu

More information on <https://lgbt.sdsu.edu>